

Survey CAD Technician

McClelland Consulting Engineers, Inc. is seeking a Survey CAD Technician to join our Survey Department in our Fayetteville office. We are seeking an individual with two or more years of CAD Design experience, with an Associate's Degree in drafting or surveying.

QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILLS

- Proficient in AutoCAD, Civil 3D & Trimble Business Center
- Knowledge and ability to import, process and analyze field data
- Knowledge and ability to prepare ALTA survey design
- Knowledge and ability to design and develop surveys
- Knowledge and ability to complete alignment sheets and drawing improvements
- Strong communication skills
- Experience in MS Word, Excel & Outlook
- Optimize Best Practices for CAD design
- Create & prepare detailed working plans and/or scale drawings for projects from engineering field notes
- Produce drawings in accordance with company CAD standards & specific project and client requirements

About MCE

MCE is a regional, multidisciplined engineering consulting firm with more than 130 employees throughout four offices in Little Rock, Fayetteville and Fort Smith in Arkansas, and Tulsa, Oklahoma. We are focused on providing exceptional customer service by committing our time, energy and professionalism to complete projects that enhance the quality of life, improve infrastructure and offer positive economic impacts to improve the communities where we serve, live and work.

MCE is an equal opportunity employer offering a competitive benefits package and opportunity for career growth.